

JANET ROGERS AWS

ArtmyrtleBeach.com welcomes national and international award winning watercolor artist/instructor, Janet Rogers AWS, for a fantastic Ocean Front Watercolor Week!

Janet Rogers AWS: Flowers and Figures in Watercolor

Janet is an experienced instructor, whose romantic florals and ethereal portraits have captured the imaginations of both art lovers and artists alike. Her paintings portray all the spontaneity and magic that watercolor alone is capable of creating.

The week will feature a variety of themes. Her warm enthusiastic, hands-on instruction will inspire you to paint with more confidence and find your own artistic expression. Lessons will include floral subjects, portraits and figures. Every day will begin with a demonstration, followed by individual help. All students will have individual tables to spread out and paint. Our classroom will be located oceanfront and allow you to enjoy the ocean views and natural light as you paint.
